ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

In the early 1920s Rajah Sir S. R. M. Annamalai Chettiar founded Sri Minakshi College, Sri Minakshi Tamil College, and Sri Minakshi Sanskrit College at Chidambaram. In 1928, Rajah Sir S. R. M. Annamalai Chettiar agreed with the local Government to hand over the above-said institution for establishing a University. Thus, on 01.01.1929 Annamalai University was established as per Annamalai University Act 1928 (Tamil Nadu Act 1 of 1929). One of the most significant developments is the enactment of the Annamalai University Act, 2013 (Tamil Nadu Act 20 of 2013), which has come into force on September 25, 2013. Annamalai University is accredited with an 'A' Grade by NAAC in 2014. "The NIRF-2020" by the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD) has ranked the University in the band 101 - 150 in the overall category as well as the University Category. In the Pharmacy Category, the ranking is 12th in India. In the Medical category, the ranking is 35th. "The QS World University Ranking – 2021" has ranked Annamalai University in the band of 301-350 in Asia Ranking, and 39 in India Ranking. "The CWTS Leiden Ranking 2019", on the scientific impact of universities and on universities' involvement in scientific collaboration & scientific performance, has ranked the University at 23rd based on the number of publications and 7th based on the proportion of publications that, compared with other publications in the same field and in the same year, belong to the top 10% most frequently cited.

Among the top 212 ranked institutions for Higher Education in India the "SCImago Institutional Ranking (2019)" has ranked Annamalai University as 9th in Tamil Nadu and 29th in India. Annamalai University is one of the largest unitary, teaching, and residential Universities in Southern Asia comprising 10 Faculties and 49 departments of study.
