Prof. Dr. S. Manian, the Vice - Chancellor Annamalai University, meeting His Excellency the President of India on 20.03.2017

From the Vice-Chancellor's Desk...

I feel delighted to meet you all through the first issue of the AU Newsletter for the year 2017. I take this opportunity to greet you all and wish you a wonderful year ahead. Every new year dawns with lot of challenges and this year is no exception. I am sure that this year will spring challenges and I appeal to all the staff to prepare yourselves to rise to the occasion and face the challenges with conviction. We have before us the task of carving a niche for ourselves in academic, research and extension activities which will attract quality customers and improved funding for sustained development. I was fortunate enough to get an audience of His Excellency, The President of India and he was pleased to share some good thoughts about the University. His kind words were a source of inspiration and gave the extra drive for me take the University to a much higher level. Team work is key to success. Therefore we shall together work towards the common goal of steering the University to greater heights.

Dr. S. Manian.
